2. Personal Statement (5 points)

This personal statement is an important part of the application in that it helps us become acquainted with you in ways different from courses, grades, test scores, and other objective data. It allows you to demonstrate your ability to organize thoughts and express yourself. Attach your essay to the end of your application. The rubric used for evaluating the personal statement can be seen by request made by the student.

Using the statement below as a starting point, tell the faculty council about how you fulfill the requirement of community service and leadership:

“What is the value and importance of community service to our community? How have you fulfilled the requirements of community service and leadership, which are two pillars of the National Honor Society?”

Your essay should be no longer than one (1) double-spaced page, using Times New Roman 12 point font.

Table for Community Service Hours: Please enter each event individually, even if you have been involved for multiple years. Leadership roles carry greater significance than participation roles.
