Allen Iverson Roundball Classic

Churchland High School hosts first annual game

Churchland High School hosted the Allen Iverson Roundball Classic which featured the 24 of the top high school boys players in

Allen Iverson right at halftime that got the crowd into a frenzy. People were flocking to get a glimpse of the NBA Hall of

MVP's:

PJ Washington (Kentucky) Team Honor: 37 points

Brandon McCoy (undecided) Team Loyalty: 34 points

the nation. The game was exciting from the opening tip with local product Dejour Dickens (Bethel HS) flushing home the first basket of the game. Dunks and points were at a premium on the night as Team Honor defeated Team Loyalty 198-152. Although Dickens got the crowd on their feet to start the game, it was the arrival of Famer as he made his return to Churchland High School where he played some memorable games as a high schooler. Overall it was a great atmosphere as many Churchland High School students and staff came out and supported the inaugural event. Thanks to all!!

Weather Report:

Expect a lot of postponements this week

The weather forecast is calling for a lot of rain this week. Heavy rains are expected for Monday and Tuesday which may push a lot of games back to the end of the week. Please stay tuned to the announcements for any changes in game schedules. If you have any questions please stop by the Activities Directors office (Coach Whit) located by the gym.
